Discover the world of theatre as you become a character in a live musical production.

Experience the world of singing, acting, and dancing.

Meet people your own age and learn from an amazing group of teachers.

It's definitely an experience that must be had. This September, Spaulding School of Drama will offer your child the opportunity to sing, act and dance in the musical Beauty and the Beast. This musical has been a favourite of audiences both young and old for many years. This year we will create an amazing musical theatre production which your child will be able to experience.

SPAULDING MUSICAL THEATRE PROGRAM

In our musical theatre classes students will learn:

- singing rhythm and vocal performances
- stage movement and storytelling through dance
- character development and making characters come alive on stage
- line memorization and working with scripts
- stage performance and teamwork

September to December

the junior class and intermediate class will culminate in a showcase performance featuring excerpts from popular musicals

January to May:

Working on the Musical Beauty and the Beast and set designs

Performance: Sat June 6 (location tba)
